Black Women Lead

Help us honor 200 Black women leaders who have helped make Boston what it is today. We are raising $40,000 to have these women's portraits placed on banners that will hang from the street lights along Blue Hill Ave. You can make a donation to our gofundme campaign here.

For more information contact Ed Gaskin at ewgaskin@gmail.com

BLACK WOMEN LEAD

These 200 honorees represent ALL Black women who have worked tirelessly to make the greater Boston area a better place since the 1700s.

We want to celebrate the collective impact of the women listed, as African Americans, Women and as seniors. They have contributed to the improvement of every area of life.

If your name or the name of a family member is below, we want to hear from you to make sure you know you will be honored at the State House May 12th. For more information contact Rebecca Zlotowicz, Rebecca.Zlotowicz@mahouse.gov.
